Heavenly Hawaii

Asian Art and Hawaiian Culture

March 11 -16, 2019

Shangri La Photos by Lila Gault

Come fly to Honolulu with the Society for Asian Art for a six-day stay in the island paradise. With Waikiki's Princess Kaulani Hotel as our base, we will explore a full spectrum of Asian art and also learn about Hawaiian culture.

Trip highlights include:

- A visit to Doris Duke's famous home, Shangri La, for a curator led tour of its noted Islamic art collection.
- Tours of both the Bishop Museum renowned for their collection highlighting Hawaiian history, art and culture, and the Honolulu Museum of Art to view their Asian art collections guided by their senior curator.
- Attend a wine reception hosted by SAA members in their Honolulu home with a talk by Tom Coffman, author of How Hawaii Changed America.
- Spend an afternoon at the University of Hawaii's East-West Center and view their exhibits of traditional and contemporary arts of the Pacific region, as well as enjoy their Japanese garden and Thai pavilion.
- And for a complete change of pace, explore the spectacular Kualoa Ranch, a 4,000-acre private nature preserve that has been the site of many popular films.
