Travel with the Society for Asian Art in October as we head North to Portland, Oregon. The trip will include the hallmarks of SAA travel with curator-led tours, a private collection visit, and interesting fellow travelers.

Trip highlights include:

- Attend a curator-led tour of the Asian holdings of the Portland Museum of Art which cover six galleries and total nearly 4000 objects.
- Tour the University of Oregon's Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art to view their Chinese, Korean, and Japanese galleries accompanied by their chief curator.
- Visit a collector's home to view their collections which include monochrome Chinese porcelains and snuff bottles.
- See Portland's outstanding urban Lan Su Chinese Garden, considered one of the most authentic Chinese gardens outside of China, and the Portland Japanese Garden which occupies over five acres of wooded land.

The Details

$1000 (double occupancy, based on minimum group size of 20), Single Room Supplement $480

The tour cost includes:

- Four nights at the Benson Hotel
- Daily breakfasts
- Travel to all planned sightseeing events
- Museum entrance fees
- Curator and docent tour fees
- Group Farewell Dinner

Not included are:

- Airfare from the Bay Area to Portland and return
- Transportation from and to Portland International Airport
- Drinks other than water with meals
- Laundry, gratuities, and communication charges (phone, fax, wifi, internet)
- Personal insurance for health, baggage, and trip cancellation
- Any meals or items not listed on the final itinerary
